

Adjunct Instructor - Education

Department: School of Integrative Studies

Type: Adjunct, Part-time

Stephens College is seeking an Adjunct Instructor to teach a course in Education. The class will be taught in the residential program and meet for the standard 16-week semester in an online and/or lecture format. The course will run January 10 – May 10, 2022.

Qualifications:

- Must have experience in teaching courses at the college level
- Ph.D. or equivalent in Education or related field, Master's degree or ABD + collegiate teaching experience will be considered.
- Experience in early childhood literacy
- Evidence of communication and collaborative skills demonstrated commitment to working with a multicultural population and an awareness of issues affecting women and minorities.

Course description:

EDU 454: Emergent Language and Literacy (3 hrs.) M 4-7pm (in-seat)

Students review theories and practices related to speech and language development, and complex emerging literacy. Emphasis will be given to practical applications of language and literacy development from birth through age eight. This course includes a special focus on English Language Learners and the practices related to their learning. Students design, facilitate and evaluate literacy experiences that support children in learning to read and write.

To Apply:

Qualified applicants should-

1. Complete the online Stephens College application
 - A letter of application
 - Resume or Curriculum Vitae
 - Names of three references

Official transcripts & a criminal background check will be required before a contract will be issued.

Stephens College is an Affirmative Action /Equal Opportunity Employer. A diverse community on campus is valued, so women, minorities, veterans, and individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply.

About Stephens College:

Established in 1833, Stephens College is a comprehensive Master's institution with a robust undergraduate women's college preparing students for successful careers in business, communication, fashion design, education, creative writing, filmmaking and the health sciences (including a new nursing degree program jointly owned and operated by a local private healthcare system); a new co-ed Conservatory for the Performing Arts launching in August 2022; and thriving co-ed graduate programs in the health sciences (Physician Assistant, Counseling, Health Information Management), and the performing arts (MFA in Script and Television Writing located at the Jim Henson Studios in Los Angeles).

Located in the heart of Columbia, Missouri – ranked as one of the top university towns in the nation and home to the University of Missouri – Stephens offers students all the social experiences and benefits of an SEC university town, in combination with all the personal and academic benefits of a small, individualized, student-focused private college on 50 historically beautiful and wooded acres in the center of the city. Rated in 2021 among the top colleges in the country by the Princeton Review, Stephens was ranked by U.S. News & World Report as #36 among all Midwestern regional universities and #3 in “social mobility” for its success in accepting, supporting, and graduating first-gen and disadvantaged students.

Stephens says yes first. As a result, it is the pet-friendliest campus in the nation; home to the first all-women’s competitive esports team; and the only college that requires every student to complete a non-credit Career and Professional Development curriculum of more than 20 learning experiences and assignments as a graduation requirement. Stephens operates its own pre-K/elementary lab school; its own professional summer theatre in Okoboji, Iowa; its own student-designed and operated campus store selling student-designed fashions and accessories; its own equestrian stables offering academic and recreational riding; and its own hybrid online graduate degree in script and television writing that meets for 10 days every semester at the Jim Henson Studios in Los Angeles.