

Assistant Professor of Acting

The School of Arts and Humanities at Stephens College invites applications for a full-time, non-tenure track appointment in the BFA Acting/Musical Theatre programs to begin in fall 2021.

Teaching responsibilities include all levels of Acting, Movement for the Actor, Voice and Speech for the Actor, Shakespeare, and Acting Styles.

Responsibilities:

1. Teaching undergraduate studio courses musical theatre performance, acting and theatre history
2. Directing at least one main stage production per year
3. Student advising
4. Participating in college service.

Required qualifications:

- Significant professional experience in acting and musical theatre as a performer and/or director
- Demonstrated teaching excellence at a college/university level
- Appreciation of women in theatre, dance and music

Desired qualification:

We are particularly seeking candidates with a terminal degree in acting or directing, who have worked professionally, and who have prior university teaching is preferred.

Stephens College is the second oldest women's college in the country, ranked the 17th best quality of life great campus experience by The Princeton Review. The Stephens College theatre program is ranked #3 in the country by The Princeton Review. It is located in Columbia, Missouri, a vibrant college town approximately 120 miles from both Kansas City and St. Louis, is the second oldest women's college in the country.

To Apply: Qualified applicants must complete an on-line Stephens College application with the following: A cover letter, resume and professional references.

The successful candidate must pass a criminal background check.

EOE A diverse community on campus is valued

Smoke Free Campus